Luke 15:24

There was a man who had two sons. The second son asked his father to give him his share of the property in advance.

But the son had wasted all of his property in the distant country and became

The son realized that he became more miserable than the servants in his father's house. So he returned and begged his father to accept him as one of his servants.

As soon as his father saw his son coming from afar, he ran to him and hugged him and accepted him with joy.

Jesus said, "God, your father is always waiting for you."

We sin a lot in our lives.

So We feel guilty for sinning against God.

But God always forgave us for our sins.
Because Jesus has already taken over all our sins.

You have to believe this and go to God

"Therefore keep watch, because you do not know the day or the hour."

Matthew 25: 13

There were ten virgins who were preparing for the wedding feast. The five wise girls prepared lamps with enough oil, but the other five didn't.

At night, when the bridegroom was late,
the ten virgins fell asleep.

"The groom is here!" The virgins got up in a hurry. And the lights of the five virgins who didn't prepare enough oil went out.

“Give us some oil.” “If we give you our oil, we may run out of oil, too. Go get some oil.”

But while the five foolish girls went to buy oil, the door to the feast closed. Eventually, the five foolish girls were not allowed to attend the party.

The servant who received 5 talents and two talents went at once and put their money to work and gained double. However, a man who received 1 talent went out and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money.

When the master came back and settled accounts with them, the first servant gained five talents more, and the second one two more.

But, the servant who received one talent did not gain any. “Master, you've only given me one talent. Then how can I make more money?”

His master was angry. "You should have put my money on deposit with the bankers, I would have received it back with interest. You worthless servant, get out of my house!"

Today's Lesson

Jesus is warning us not to be lazy
through the parable of talents.
There's something more important than
how much we've received.
The more important thing is to live a life for the glory of God by faithfully

Bible Kids

'Shouldn't you have had mercy on your fellow servant just as I had on you?'

Matthew 18: 33

There was a man who owed the king ten thousands talents. The king took pity on the man, canceled the debt.

But when that man went out, he found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii. He grabbed him and was angry at him. “Pay back what you owe me!”

And he threw his fellow servant into the prison. The king heard this news from his other servant.

Then the king was angry and called the servant back. “I canceled all that debt of yours because you begged me to. Shouldn’t you have had mercy on your fellow servants just as I had on you?”

Jesus said, "As our Father in heaven forgave you, you should forgive each other."

Today's Lesson

A servant was cleared of a very large debt of ten thousand talents. But he did not forgive his fellow servant who owed him one hundred denarii. This is an ungrateful attitude. We were also forgiven and saved by grace through Jesus. If we don't forget that grace, we have to forgive those who have done wrong to us.

Bible Kids

But Barnabas took him and brought him to the apostles. He told them how Saul on his journey had seen the Lord and that the Lord had spoken to him, and how in Damascus he had preached fearlessly in the name of Jesus.

Acts 9:27

After Paul met Jesus, he wanted to meet Jesus' disciples.

But Jesus' disciples were afraid of Paul. Because they did not know that after Paul met Jesus, he became a believer in Jesus.

Barnabas helped Paul. "He really met Jesus and changed completely!"

"I've also seen Paul preach in Damascus, where he went to arrest the Christians!" The disciples became friends with Paul with ease.

After that, Barnabas and Paul became good friends and traveled around the world to preach the gospel together.

Today's Lesson

Paul, who persecuted the church, met Jesus and became a new man, but people didn't believe him.
But God prepared Barnabas and made him
a good fellow worker for Paul.
Like Paul and Barnabas, we should be good friends of faith and help each other.

Peter sent them all out of the room; then he got down on his knees and prayed. Turning toward the dead woman, he said, "Tabitha, get up." She opened her eyes, and seeing Peter she sat up.

Acts 9: 40

There was a disciple named Dorcas, who always doing good and helping the poor.

About that time she became sick and died. Her neighbors were very sad and brought Peter back.

When Peter arrived, everyone who had been helped by her was crying, showing the clothes he had received as a gift.

Peter sent them all out of the room; then he got down on his knee and prayed.

“Dorcas, get up!”, said Peter. She opened her eyes, and sat up seeing Peter. Seeing this, everyone was happy and many people in that village believed in Jesus

Today's Lesson

Peter was a disciple of Jesus, and he was able to do what Jesus did when he was on this earth.

Jesus told his disciples that they would do the same thing he did.

We are disciples of Jesus.

We need to learn and remember what Jesus did in this land and do the same things as Jesus.

Cornelius, a Gentile Saved

Bible Kids

Today's Word

The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles.

Acts 10: 45

At Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a centurion in what was known as the Italian Regiment. He and all his family were devout and God-fearing; he gave generously to those in need and prayed to God regularly.

One day, Cornelius heard the voice of God while praying. "Send men to bring a man named Peter."

At that time, Peter also saw a vision in prayer. God gave him animals from heaven that Jews could not eat and ordered him to eat. “Do not call anything impure that God

Eventually, Peter followed the men that Cornelius had sent and went to Cornelius' house.

Peter preached them Jesus and the gospel to Cornelius and his family. Then the Holy Spirit came down on them. He realized by looking at this; "Even the gentiles can be saved if they believe in Jesus!"

Peter thought only Jews could believe in Jesus and be saved.

But the gospel of God has no discrimination among all the people of the world.

We have to preach the gospel to everyone in the world so that they can be saved.

Acts 16: 25

Paul and Silas did their best to preach the gospel in Philippe. But people who hated it beat Paul and Silas and put them into prison.

Paul and Silas prayed and praised God even in prison. Everyone in the prison listened to this.

Then suddenly there was such a big earthquake that all the prison doors opened. The jailer was very worried because he thought the prisoners had escaped.

Paul shouted, “Don’t worry! We are all here!” “Sir, what must I do to be saved?” The Jailer asked.

"Believe in the Lord Jesus. Then you and your family will be saved!" At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his family were

Today's Word

Paul replied, "Short time or long--I pray God that not only you but all who are listening to me today may become what I am, except for these chains."

Acts 26: 29

Paul preached the gospel and eventually became a prisoner in Jerusalem. King Agrippa asked about the sins of the prisoner Paul.

“You have permission to speak for yourself!” Agrippa gave a time for Paul to begin his defense.

Paul used the opportunity to preach the gospel.
"O king, I hope you may become like me except for these chains!"

The king found no sin in Paul. Paul wanted to go to Rome and preach the gospel to the Emperor..

Eventually, Paul appealed to the Roman emperor. As a prisoner, Paul got on a boat to go to the emperor of Rome.

Paul was a prisoner, but he preached the gospel proudly

before the king of his own trial.

Because he was not ashamed of the gospel, and he believed it to be a proud truth.

We need to be able to confidently and courageously preach the Gospel of Jesus whomever we meet.

Philemon 1:10

Onesimus was a servant of Philemon. But he sneaked out without his master's permission to Rome.

Onesimus met Paul who was imprisoned in Rome. Paul preached the gospel to him, and he came to believe in Jesus.

Paul told Onesimus to go back to his master Philemon and to ask for forgiveness. And Paul told Onesimus to live as a believer in Jesus.

Onesimus was worried. Because at that time, the escaped servant was killed by its Paul wrote a letter for Onesimus to his master, Philemon, to forgive him. This letter is 'Philemon' in the Bible.

Paul reconnected the broken relationship between Onesimus and Philemon. The Onesimus asked Philemon for forgiveness, and the Philemon forgave the Onesimus.

We have to ask for forgiveness if we've done something wrong. And if someone did something wrong to us, we have to forgive them. That's what people believe in Jesus.

Timothy, the Disciple of Paul

Bible Kids

Today's Word

I have been reminded of your sincere faith, which first lived in your grandmother Lois and in your mother Eunice and, I am persuaded, now lives in you also.

2Timothy 4: 5

Paul had a disciple named Timothy. Timothy has been a missionary with Paul since he was a boy.

Paul, who was in prison, knew he was about to die, and wrote a letter to his beloved disciple Timothy.

The letter said how Timothy should teach the believers as a church minister.

Timothy and the believers read Paul's letter and decided not to lose faith until the end even in persecution.

So Paul's faith has been passed down to his disciple Timothy, and again to the churches.

Thanks to the evangelists who preached the gospel to us and the teachers who taught us the word of God, our faith and our church have grown.

Now we have to deliver our faith and teach them the word of God that we have learned.
